Piedmont Association Met With Enon

Piedmont Baptist association met with the church at Enon August 1st. Introductory sermon was preached by Rev. T. E. Durham. Bro. Durham gives promise of a good preacher and a useful man.

Rev. D. W. Hiott, the moderator, called the meeting to order, and assisted the clerk, H. Dean Singleton, in reorganizing the body. Mr. Hiott was the first moderator forty years ago when the association was organized. The organization was effected by the election of Rev. J. L. Willis of the Six Mile Academy as moderator. H. D. Singleton was re-elected clerk and L. L. Smith assistant clerk and treasurer. Both these brethren have served the association for several years, and very efficiently. Bro. Willis will make a splendid presiding officer.

Rev. J. Dean Grain made a great speech on the work among the soldiers at Camp Sevier. He is a speaker of great power. While he was speaking we thought of an avalanche coming down a mountain side sweeping everything before it. Certainly it was one of the greatest speeches we have ever heard. If Bro. Grain could make that speech before all the associations in the state surely it would not be hard to get money to support the work.

Rev. W. M. Whitesides of Charleston told of the needs in that great city. Rev. J. Furman Moore told in a graphic way how he had worked among the soldiers at Camp Sevier and had led many of them to Christ. It was a great day.

The church at Enon had arranged a long table under the large oak trees near the church, and on that table was an abundance of the very best to eat, and the ladies of the church served it to all. It was an ideal place for a big dinner, and the big dinner was surely there. I don't think I ever saw as much dinner left after so many people had eaten.

SECOND DAY'S SESSION

Friday morning brought forth all the rains that Thursday threatened; however six churches were represented and although a mere handful was present no one regretted that they had braved the weather and come.

The subject of Sunday Schools and Periodicals were discussed without any reports and the clerk requested to get the reports, together with any others that had not been presented, and have them printed in the minutes; also the churches that had not got their letters in. This, with the Woman's Work, consumed the forenoon.

Dinner was served in the house, a social hour was taken, and the afternoon was given to Education, including Ministerial Education and Six Mile Baptist Academy on all of which there were able reports.

Discussion by W. M. Whitesides, J. L. Willis, S. J. Leopard, H. D. Singleton and J. D. Crain, who was the principal speaker, and in his characteristic style, we saw the needs of our Christian schools in, perhaps, a greater way than ever before.

After some routine business, adjourned to meet with George's Creek church on Thursday before the first Sunday in August, 1919.

Six Mile Cemetery

All who are interested in cleaning off the grave yard at Six Mile will meet there Saturday, August 10. Bring tools.

AMERICA ANSWERS

(Atlanta Constitution.)

No modern war poem has elicited more interest from the public and press than "In Flanders Fields," written by Lieut. Col. McRae, of the Canadian forces, and printed some days ago in The Constitution. Below is the American soldier's answer to the mission left him by the dead that lay in the fields of France, written by a member of the forces at Camp Gordon.

IN FLANDERS' FIELDS

(By Lieut. Col. McRae, Canadian Forces.)

In Flanders' Fields the poppies grow
Between the crosses, row on row,
That mark our place; and in the sky
The larks, still bravely singing, fly
Scarce heard among the guns below.
We are the dead. Short days ago
We lived, felt dawn, saw sunset's glow,
Loved and were loved; and now we lie
In Flanders' Fields.

Take up our quarrel with the foe!
To you, from failing hands, we throw
The torch. Be yours to lift it high.
If ye break faith with us who die
We shall not sleep, the poppies blow
In Flanders' Fields.

THE ANSWER

(By J. A. Armstrong, First Company, First Replacement Regiment, Camp Gordon.)

In Flanders' Fields the cannon boom
And fitful flashes light the gloom,
While up above, like eagles, fly
The fierce destroyers of the sky;
With stains the earth wherein you lie
Is redder than the poppy bloom
In Flanders' Fields.

Sleep on, ye brave! The shrieking shell,
The quaking trench, the startling yell,
The fury of the battle hell
Shall wake you not, for all is well!
Sleep peacefully, for all is well;
Your flaming torch aloft we bear,
With burning heart and oath we swear
To keep the faith, to fight it through;
To crush the foe, or sleep with you
In Flanders' Fields.

THE MITCHELL STANDARDIZED WAGON

We have just received a car of the old reliable MITCHELL WAGONS and, strange to say, they are better built, better ironed, and a better wagon today than The Mitchell Wagon Company has ever turned out.

The 2 1-8 One-Horse Mitchell at .....	$ 65.00
The 2 1-4 One-Horse Mitchell at .....	70.00
The 2 1-2 Two-Horse Mitchell at .....	105.00
The 2 7-8 Two-Horse Mitchell Wagon at .....	115.00

Sounds a little high, we'll admit, but not as high as the next car will be, nor as high in proportion as cotton and other farm products.

Buy Them And Help Win The War
FOR SALE EVERYWHERE

In 1911 The Mitchell Wagon sold for $60 in the 2 1-2 two-horse, and cotton was 10c lb., taking 600 lbs. of cotton to pay for a 2 1-2 wagon. Today the 2 1-2 wagon is $105, while 600 lbs. cotton at 25c. lb. comes to $150, which buys the same wagon and leaves you $45. No higher in price today than other wagons, but better by test. We have sold hundreds of them in Pickens county, and have yet to find one dissatisfied customer.
